Brexit Countdown

Of particular interest to: All firms

With just over two months to go before the end of the Brexit transitional period clients are no doubt in the final stages of their Brexit planning.

In the light of both queries that we have received relating to Brexit and of the publication by the FCA of the post Brexit transitional Handbook, we have taken the opportunity of drafting a brief paper on the Brexit implications for firms.

It is, of course, beyond the scope of such a paper to cover every firm's situation and as such we have limited it to the following topics which includes those that have generated the most queries:

- Existing EU Regulations etc.
- FCA expectations (and TTP)
- FCA Handbook
- EMIR reporting
- SFTR reporting
- Transaction reporting
